RE: Congregation Achpretvia Tal Chaim Sharhayu
Shor, Inc., Debtor Chapter 11 Case No. 16-10092-mew

Dear Judge Wiles:

This firm is counsel to the debtor Congregation Achpretvia Tal Chaim Sharhayu Shor, Inc. (the "Debtor" or "Congregation"). As Your Honor may recall, an evidentiary hearing was scheduled for July 27, 2016 on the motion of 163 East 69 Realty, LLC ("163 East 69 Realty") to dismiss the Debtor's chapter 11 case, or, in the alternative, to abstain from hearing action removed from state court and to remand that action back to state court (the "Motion to Dismiss"). Prior to the commencement of the evidentiary hearing, in the presence of Your Honor, the Debtor and 163 East 69 Realty entered into a settlement in principle to resolve the Motion to Dismiss. The parties have agreed upon a form of order remanding the adversary proceeding (Exhibit A hereto); however, we have been unable to reach an agreement with respect to the proposed order dismissing the case. As a result, we are requesting a conference call or status conference to discuss the proposed order dismissing the case.

Recently, 163 East 69 Realty imposed a new requirement in the proposed dismissal order that was not part of the original settlement discussions. This new issue concerns when the Debtor may file a motion to sell the property located at 163 East 69th Street, New York, New York (the "Property"). The terms of the contract between the parties (the "Contract") provides for certain conditions of closing, including that the Congregation's authorization to convey title to the Property is subject to obtaining prior approval by the New York State Attorney General (the "Attorney General") and the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "Consents"). Under the Contract, if the Congregation is unable to obtain the Consents for any reason, the sole obligation of the Congregation shall be to refund 163 East 69 Realty's down payment and to reimburse 163 East 69 Realty for the cost of title examination, and upon making such refund and reimbursement, the Contract shall wholly cease and terminate and neither party shall have any further claims against the other by reason of the Contract.

It is the Debtor's position that under the Contract, if either the Attorney General or the New York Supreme Court does not give its Consent, then the Contract is not enforceable and then the Debtor has the right to file a motion to sell the Property. In accordance with this position, we have attached our proposed form of order as Exhibit B. In contrast, 163 East 69 Realty has taken the position that the Debtor cannot file a motion to sell the Property unless and until the Contract is fully and finally determined in the New York Supreme Court litigation to be either enforceable or unenforceable. The parties can't agree on this issue and it is delaying the settlement of the litigation. As a result, we request either a telephone call or status conference with Your Honor at your convenience to discuss this issue.

I am available to answer any questions that the Court may have.

Respectfully submitted,

Steven Eichel
